Ready to Listen. Eager to Serve.

- ★ I am 52 years old. I have lived in Elkhart County since 1969. I am an active member of St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Elkhart, where I teach adult Sunday school and fill the pulpit from time to time as a lay speaker. My wife, Sherry, and I enjoy attending the annual Art Fair at Winona Lake, Elkhart Jazz Festival, Wakarusa Maple Syrup Festival, and many other activities that demonstrate the richness of culture and history of the area.
- ★ I attended Goshen College. I have a Bachelor's Degree in Business from IUSB, and am currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Public Affairs.
- ★ As Manager of Maintenance at St. Joseph County Public Library's Main facility, I bring management experience and a sense of accountability for the use of taxpayer resources.
- ★ I am proud to have been nominated by a caucus held in Bremen, Marshall County to be the Democratic candidate for State Senate District 9.
- ★ My campaign is about:
Respecting our aging citizens. Having a sense of gratitude for their contributions. Protecting their property and their rights. And finding ways to use the wisdom of their maturity and experience in our communities.
- ★ My campaign is about:
Enabling our workers, farmers and small business owners. They have much to contribute to our economy. They are the engines of economic growth, innovation, and community well-being.
- ★ My campaign is about:
Providing for the contributions of our future workers. We must address the cost of higher education. We must encourage our high school graduates to attend Indiana colleges, and we must convince our college graduates to work and apply their skills in Indiana.
- ★ As an individual, citizen, and legislator, my decisions will be influenced by:
my Christian faith, my life experience,
the wisdom of the citizens of my district, and the advice of professionals and experts on any particular issue.

★ On November 4th, vote Mike Settles, Democratic Candidate for State Senate, district 9.

Paid for by the committee to elect Mike Settles,
Donna Hemmig, Treasurer.
